IN THE MATTER OF Trademark Application of Sahra Tzortzis
For Registration of D, Serial No. #86397334
Published for Opposition in the Official Gazette on February 10, 2015

Duke University, Plaintiff-Opposer vs Sahra Tzortzis Defendant-Applicant	OPPOSITION TO REGISTRATION OF MARK

Attorney Reference No.: DUKU9346

Duke University, a corporation of the State of North Carolina, with a principal place of business in Durham, North Carolina and business address at Office of University Counsel, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, believes that it will be damaged by registration of the mark shown in the above-identified application, and hereby opposes same.

The grounds for opposition are as follows:

1. Opposer is the owner of many marks (hereafter referred to as Opposer's "Marks") consisting in whole or substantial part of the letter D (when separately referred to, hereafter called Opposer's "D Marks"), and/or the term DUKE or variants thereof (when separately referred to, hereafter called Opposer's "DUKE Marks"). For purposes of the current opposition proceeding, the marks relied upon as Opposer's Marks are those set out in the registrations listed herein and in the exhibits, together with the common law marks listed herein and in the exhibits, and those marks listed on the ESTTA Cover Sheet for this pleading.
2. Since long prior to the filing date of Applicant's application, and any other priority date to which Applicant might be entitled, Opposer directly and through licensees has provided a wide variety of educational, entertainment, medical, and other goods and services under Opposer's Marks, and has sold and provided directly and through licensees, in commerce, a multitude of products under those marks. Additional detail with respect to use of Opposer's Marks is set out hereafter, and in the registrations and exhibits.

3. Applicant seeks registration of a mark comprising the letter "D" as its principal text element, pursuant to Section 1(b) of the Trademark Act (15 USC §1051(b)), for use in connection with the following:

In class 18: Gym bags; Shoe bags for travel; Sports bags.

4. Opposer, directly and through licensees, has used its D Marks in commerce on or in connection with goods that are identical and/or closely related to those identified in the opposed application, including but not limited to: sports bags, gym bags, duffel bags, backpacks, and luggage. Opposer also has used its DUKE Marks in commerce in connection with such goods. Opposer continues to use Opposer's Marks, including Opposer's D Marks and Opposer's DUKE Marks, in commerce in connection with goods that are identical and/or substantially similar to those identified in Applicant's application.

5. Applicant has not alleged any earlier priority than the filing date of its application and on information and belief has no earlier date on which it can rely.

6. Use of Opposer's Marks by Opposer commenced in the early 1920's and has continued and expanded in interstate and foreign commerce, both directly and through licensees, continuously since that time. Opposer's priority with respect to each of Opposer's Marks asserted in this Opposition, including Opposer's D Marks and Opposer's DUKE Marks, for each of the uses identified therewith, long precedes the filing date of Applicant's application and any other priority date to which Applicant might be entitled, whether based on use or otherwise. Opposer's priority extends to and includes priority as to the goods listed in Paragraph 4 above.

7. Opposer is a famous university, with a world-renowned teaching hospital and medical facilities, and a well-known Division 1 athletic program, including a famous basketball program, and whose sports programs are followed by sports fans around the country. Opposer uses Opposer's Marks, including Opposer's D Marks and Opposer's DUKE Marks, in connection with (among other things) its university activities, medical programs, and sports programs, and the marks are viewed by millions of fans each year, all of which, together with Opposer's lengthy use of Opposer's Marks, creates and reinforces a link between Opposer and Opposer's Marks, including Opposer's D Marks and Opposer's DUKE Marks, in the minds of the public.

8. Opposer owns at least the following United States Trademark Registrations and pending applications for Opposer's Marks, each of which includes the term DUKE or the letter "D" or a variant term that reminds viewers and customers of DUKE and further reinforces the link between Opposer's Marks, including Opposer's D Marks, and Opposer. Each of the registrations listed below was lawfully issued, and is valid and subsisting. Copies of the electronic records provided by the United States Trademark Office for each registration are attached hereto as Exhibits 1 through 35, corresponding to the exhibit numbers set out below, and are incorporated herein by reference and for purpose of reliance.

9. Opposer’s Marks include, in addition to the above-listed registered marks, the letter “D” and the word “DUKE” in a variety of designs and fonts, used for substantially the same goods and services as are identified in the preceding paragraphs, including in the registrations themselves, and used, as well, as marks under the common law.

10. Opposer's provision and promotion of its services and products to the public under Opposer's Marks for nearly a century has caused the public to strongly associate Opposer's Marks, including Opposer's D Marks as well as Opposer's DUKE Marks, and the goods and services provided thereunder, with Opposer, such association beginning long prior to the filing date of Applicant's application, prior to any first date of use of Applicant's mark that Applicant is entitled to assert, and prior to any other relevant priority date to which Applicant might be entitled with respect to the mark for which registration is sought, and continuing to the present time. Through those efforts Opposer now has built substantial goodwill in Opposer's Marks, including its D Marks and its DUKE Marks, that inures to the benefit of Opposer.

11. The mark DUKE has become famous, and is associated with and identifies Opposer; Opposer's D Marks are at least well-known, and certain of the D Marks, including at least the mark known as the "IRON D" design, are famous. Opposer's said Marks became famous prior to the filing date of Applicant's application, any date of first use of Applicant's mark that Applicant is entitled to assert, and any other relevant priority date to which Applicant might be entitled with respect to the mark for which registration is sought; and said fame continues at present.

12. The fame of Opposer's aforesaid mark DUKE and its famous D Marks is so widespread and pervasive that consumers will expect that not only identical marks but also similar marks are associated with Opposer. Opposer's long use of "D" has created an identity for Opposer associated with the term "D". Opposer's "D" Marks now serve to identify, and as an identity of, Opposer, such identification beginning long prior to the filing date of Applicant's application, prior to any first date of use of Applicant's mark that Applicant is entitled to assert, and prior to any other relevant priority date to which Applicant might be entitled with respect to the mark for which registration is sought, and continuing to the present time.

13. Applicant seeks to register a mark incorporating a term that is substantially similar or identical to Opposer's Marks, including Opposer's D Marks, for goods that are identical and/or closely related to those with which Opposer's Marks are used.

14. Applicant's mark, rather than pointing to Applicant, when used as Applicant would be entitled to use the mark if registered would point uniquely to Opposer as an entity. That is, the mark sought to be registered would be entitled to be used so as to incorporate and be perceived as Opposer's identity or "persona," and purchasers are likely to assume that goods bearing the mark sought to be registered are connected with Opposer. Opposer's excellent and well-known reputation, and the close and long-time association of Opposer's Marks with Opposer are such that a connection with Opposer and Opposer's goods and services is likely to be presumed when the mark Applicant seeks to register is used as permitted, in connection with the goods identified in the application.

15. For purposes of this application, evidence of any limitations with respect to use of the applied-for mark that allegedly have been adopted by Applicant or its licensees is irrelevant to the claims of likelihood of confusion in this proceeding, except to the extent (if any) that Applicant has incorporated express limitations into the application itself.

16. Applicant claims blue as a feature of the coloration of the mark. The likelihood of a presumed connection, and of confusion, would be particularly strong if Applicant's mark were used, as presumptively will be the case based on the nature of the application, in connection with themes and images associated with Opposer. For example, if registered as currently proposed, Applicant's mark could presumptively be depicted and/or advertised in connection with Opposer's school colors

(blue and white), with collegiate teams and athletes, and/or with a devil or parts thereof reminiscent of Opposer's mascot; and such goods could presumptively further be marketed in association with images depicting, and themes associated with, colleges, collegiate programs, including images and themes evocative of Opposer and Opposer's athletic teams, along with other indicia evocative of Opposer.

17. Applicant has not incorporated limitations on channels of trade or on markets, or adopted other limitations in an attempt to minimize the likelihood of confusion. The absence of such limitations further enhances the likelihood of a presumed connection and of confusion. Applicant's goods under the mark thus presumptively could be identified as "licensed" (without specification as to the licensor) and offered in commerce to the hundreds of thousands of persons who interact every year with Duke University and its medical centers; and they could be targeted to Duke University alumni and to Duke University's fans. The mark sought to be registered, used in connection with goods closely related to those provided under Opposer's D and DUKE Marks, presumptively would be marketed with images thematically evocative of Opposer and would presumptively be targeted at, and marketed through channels of commerce directed to, Opposer's athletes and fans as well as Opposer's alumni, employees, patients, students, potential students, and parents of students past, present, or future. The goods designed and marketed in the afore-described manners further could be provided on or adjacent to Duke University's campuses and at or adjacent to Duke-branded medical facilities in North Carolina and in other states. It must be presumed that the market and the channels of trade through which Applicant will offer goods bearing the mark sought to be registered are identical and closely related to those that are currently used by Opposer and that have been used by Opposer since long prior to any priority date to which Applicant might be entitled.

18. In short, the presumption of a connection, as well as a likelihood of confusion, is particularly likely and is enhanced because Applicant seeks to register and use its mark in a substantially unrestricted manner, presumptively in the same channels of trade, presumptively targeted to the same markets, and presumptively colored and otherwise configured and advertised so as to maximize the likelihood that consumers will associate and confuse Applicant's mark, used in connection with Applicant's identified goods, with Opposer and Opposer's goods and services offered under Opposer's Marks.

19. Despite Applicant's claim of right to use the mark it seeks to register, in connection with goods similar or identical to those offered by Opposer, Applicant is not affiliated with, licensed by, or otherwise associated with Opposer. Opposer is not connected with the goods that Applicant provides, offers, or intends to offer under the mark sought to be registered.

20. In view of the foregoing and the similarity of Opposer's prior-used and not abandoned Opposer's Marks (including but not limited to Opposer's D Marks and Opposer's DUKE Marks) to Applicant's applied-for mark, the related nature of the goods and services offered by Opposer and its licensees to the uses identified in Applicant's application, and the related and overlapping channels of commerce, it is further alleged that Applicant's mark, as currently applied for, identified, and described and without further limitations than those currently contained in the application, so resembles Opposer's Marks as to be likely to cause confusion and mistake.

21. Moreover, registration and/or use of Applicant's mark as sought in Applicant's application is likely to interfere with Opposer's use and exploitation of Opposer's marks, to falsely suggest a connection with Opposer, to diminish Opposer's rights in said marks and the distinctive quality thereof and the goodwill associated therewith which presently inures to the benefit of Opposer.

WHEREFORE, Opposer requests that Applicant's application be denied.

This 10th day of August 2015.
